

Drug Court Child Protection Services Training

Monday September 26th – Tuesday September 27, 2011
Dakota County Government Northern Center, Room 110C
West St. Paul, MN

Sponsored by:

The National Drug Court Institute (NDCI),
Dakota County Social Services, and
The Minnesota Office of Justice Programs

Training Goals

This training is designed to provide role-specific training to drug court team members who provide child protection and family support services to participants of Family Dependency Treatment Courts (FDTCS) and other problem-solving courts including adult, hybrid, DWI, juvenile, and mental health. It is being held in Minnesota to reduce out-of-state travel expenses and to focus on state and local child protection and family court issues.

Who Should Attend

Drug Court Child Protection Services Training is designed primarily for child protection case workers, but mental health case workers, guardians ad litem, recovery specialists, court coordinators, and other team members are welcome to register. Supervisors are encouraged to attend as well. Priority will be given to representatives from operational FDTCS, then other problem-solving courts. This training is not appropriate for those planning or developing a new problem-solving court.
